

April Artist

Matt Keeling

Matt Keeling is a Hudson Valley native who has lived in Germantown since 2011. He got his start through a film photography class at Red Hook High School and has continued it over the years. A member of the Greene County Camera Club, he works across a range of subjects including landscapes, wildlife, studio lighting, events, travel and drone photography. This collection highlights his macro insect photography, revealing intricate details that often go unnoticed.

Follow thekeeling on Instagram

